Old Testament Survey

The 39 books of the Old Testament are the "scriptures" referred to in the New Testament. What are they? How did we get them? How do they relate to each other? And what do they mean to us today? Join us as we explore these and other questions in a 4-month survey of the Old Testament.

I Corinthians

We will study Paul's answers as he was guided by the Holy Spirit to the wordly influence on the church in his day. Do we think the temptations of today are unique, or are they the same old things repackaged to look new? The suggestions Paul makes are relational in nature, and to reflect this a goal is to present Paul's advice in a relational context as couple teaching teams.

Life IN Christ

Jesus said, "Anyone who drinks the water I give will never thirst -- not ever. The water I give will be an artesian spring within, gushing fountains of endless life." (John 4:14, TM) If you're feeling like a "thirsty" traveler -- why not stop with some friends at the well of Christ to drink slowly and deeply of the water He has for us? You're invited to grow in knowing and experiencing the Life that God has for us IN Christ. Dan will teach through interactive conversation with class participants and some saints across the ages whose testimonies God used to change his life and shape his thesis at Regent College. Dan hopes you will be blessed to hear and reflect on these testimonies -- and that your interaction will help shape the testimony he has been encouraged to write down in book form for others.

The Writings of C.S. Lewis

C.S. Lewis, Cambridge Don and storyteller to children, was the master of making the profound truths of the Gospel real to the old and young alike. Join us as we learn from the writings of the bright light of the 20th Century. The plan is to read a variety of books that sample the different genres, i.e. The Great Divorce, Mere Christianity, Prince Caspian, Pearlandra (one of his sci-fi novels), The Screwtape Letters, Reflections on the Psalms, some of his essays, and more.

"Young Married Connection Place"

Calling all young married folks! There are a variety of discipleship activities on Sunday mornings to which you're welcome. This "connection place" is one of those and is particularly aimed at helping "young marrieds" get acquainted with one another through a facilitated conversation on topics relevant to your season of life. So grab a cup of coffee or tea and join us for an hour of fellowship and conversation.

Women of the Word

This class will continue studying the second half of the book of Daniel using Beth Moore's Bible study guide, "Daniel: Lives of Integrity, Words of Prophecy." The focus will be on exploring prophecies from the time of Daniel through the second coming of Christ. All women are invited to join this thrilling Bible study, even if you did not attend the first half. Beth has a winsome teaching style that keeps her audience laughing, turning pages of Scripture, and challenging us to grow deeper in Christ. Each week we will spend time viewing a dynamic teaching video and sharing our personal reflections from the devotional study guide.
